AMERICAN AIRMEN IN POLISH VICTORY

Kosciusko Squadron Helped Signally to Defeat Budenny

PRAISED IN A STATEMENT

Crushing Defeat Of The Reds Looms More Disastrous To Russia As The Facts Become Known.

Warsaw.—Polish troops have entered the city of Suwalki, 19 miles north of Augustowo, and have been given an enthusiastic welcome, according to an official statement issued here.

General Budenny, the Russian Bolshevik commander, who has been attempting to break the Polish lines in Galicia and who has suffered what appears to be decisive defeat, is rapidly retreating, it is said. Along the line from Sokolka to Brest-Litovsk, on the northeastern Polish front, the situation is quiet.

Brillina service by aviators, among whom are many Americans, is especially mentioned in the statement. General Budenny's withdrawal is in a northeasterly direction, the communique shows. It followed his defeat in the battles at Zamosc and in the Wolice-Sniatycka region and was necessitated by the Polish advance, which threatened his remaining detachments with destruction.

The Kosciusko squadron, the noted aerial force comprised largely of Americans, played a prominent part in the defeat of General Budenny. The official statement mentions "the splendid co-operation on the southern front of the flying escadrille," and it adds that it "must be recognized that the aviators contributed in a coniderable degree to the favorable development of our counter action and it is at present during the pursuit of the enemy rendering wonderful service."

The southern front aviation service includes the Kosciusko squadron, which is under command of Major Cedric Fauntleroy, of Chicago.

Further south the Russians several times attacked the town of Busk, east of Lemberg, but were repulsed. In the north, adds the statement, the Poles are continuing to advance into Poland proper.

POLES GO OVER BORDER.

Paris.—Advices to the Foreign Office stated that the Poles, continuing their advance in Lithuania, have reached a point 20 miles north of Suwalki.

The Lithuanian government has been deeply moved by the occupation of Seyny, to the east of Suwalki, the advices said.

LITHUANIANS ANGRY.

Berlin.—Lithuania will defend herself with all means at her disposal against invasion by Polish troops, and will prevent any further violations of her territory, says a Kovno dispatch.

A statement has been issued by the Lithuanian Foreign Minister, who declares: "The Polish government has issued instructions for military occupation of Lithuanian territory, after having received Lithuanian officials by expressing friendly and peaceful intentions."

"Bloodshed can be avoided only if the Poles withdraw," the Foreign Minister is quoted as declaring. "They must await the fixing of a temporary line of demarcation, which must be decided upon in agreement with the Lithuanian government."

The note says the Poles attacked Lithuanian troops while boundary negotiations were pending.

CLASH NEAR AUGUSTOWO.

London.—Reports that fighting has occurred between Polish and Lithuanian troops near Augustowo are denied in a telegram received in this city from Warsaw, says the London Times. It is also stated that Lithuanian troops in that vicinity are withdrawing without fighting against the Poles.

GERMANY TO MAKE AMENDS.

Accepts France's Terms Of Breslau Settlement.

Paris.—The foreign office received official notice of Germany's acceptance of the terms embodied in the French demands for reparation on account of the recent incidents at Breslau, which which included an attack by a German mob on the French consulate. Telegrams from Berlin had forecast the German acceptance.

ROBERTS GETS TRANSCRIPT.

Tennessee House Suffrage Record Laid Before Governor.

Nashville, Tenn.—Governor Roberts received a transcript of proceedings last Tuesday in the House of Representatives when a vote of non-consurrence in the Senate action on the suffrage ratification resolution was taken. The Governor has been requested to certify this action to Secretary Colby at Washington and antisuffrage leaders said he had told them he would do so.

Reno, Nev.—Caught with an empty gasoline tank 10,000 feet above Washoe Lake, Daniel Davison, San Francisco and Los Angeles aviator, John Woolley, Oakland business man, and James McKay of Reno, were forced to volplane 19 miles to the Wheeler Ranch south of Reno. Landing was made without injury and the machine was brought to Reno. Davison said the gasoline became exhausted while fighting a windstorm.

GREW TRAPPED IN SUBMARINE

Which Goes Down at Sea While Baltimore Bound

CREW ALL SAVED BUT TWO

Craft With Four Officers And Crew Of 36 Men Submerged Off Cape Henlopen—Position Almost Vertical.

Philadelphia.—All members of the crew of the United States Submarine S-5 except two, who are supposed to be officers, were rescued after the undersea craft had been submerged off Cape Henlopen for 42 hours, according to a radio message received at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Baltimore.—The S-5 was bound for Baltimore and due to arrive Thursday morning, with its crew of four officers and 26 men The submarine is lying disabled and almost completely submerged in the Atlantic Ocean, 55 miles east of Fenwick Shoals lightship, off the Delaware Coast.

The submarine went down about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. It was 35 hours later when the first wireless message Thursday night told of her plight. Two vessels are standing by, pumping air into the submerged craft, while fleet destroyers and other craft are speeding from Atlantic naval bases to the rescue.

At midnight a wireless from the army transport General Goethals said the stern of the submarine was being barely kept at the surface by a precarious hold the transport had been able to get.

The commander of the S-5 is Lieut. Charles M. Cooke, Jr., who was commander of the submarine E-2 when an explosion occurred in January, 1916, killing five men and injuring nine.

The purpose of the submarine coming to Baltimore was to stimulate navy recruiting and to complete the quota of the crew. Commander Northcroft, head of the local navy recruiting bureau, had made arrangements for its docking and its inspection by the people of Baltimore. It was to have docked just ahead of the fisheries steamer Albatross in the slip at East Falls and Eastern avenues.

Every Housekeeper Her Own Servant Soon, Says Teacher.

Chicago.—The time is approaching when every woman will have to be her own hired girl, Miss Jennie H. Snow, supervisor of household arts of public schools here, said.

Miss Snow, known as the "Housekeeping Teacher," believes:

"The day of the efficient hired girl is passing. Every housewife should be a good housekeeper as well. We shall teach every high school girl the essentials of efficient housekeeping—not as they apply to herself alone, but to her entire family."

"SCOUTS" BACK FROM FRANCE.

Boys To Be Extensively Entertained In New York.

New York.—The 301 Boy Scouts of America, returning from a tour of the battlefields in France as guests of the French Government, arrived here on board the army transport Princess Matoika. Extensive plans for their entertainment while in New York have been made by the National Boy Scout headquarters here.

Tests by government scientists have shown that the length of a day rather than the temperature affects the growth of plant life.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Insist on Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail-order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend.

The Authorized Ford Dealers are your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel, and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities.

Our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Warner.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and I can do my housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good in female weakness, and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Keep a daily account; it will be a most convincing truth of wastefulness if you are wasteful, and of your extravagance if you are extravagant, of your independence and good sense if you possess these qualities.—Bertha J. Richardson.

THE CANNING CORNER.

There is as much of a diversity of opinion in regard to various pickles as there is in regard to mother's mincemeat. We all like certain foods that we are used to eating. In the following recipes we will each choose that which seems good to us.

Cucumber Relish.

Take two quarts of chopped cucumbers, two quarts of white onions, chopped. Put in a colander and sprinkle with a quarter of a cupful of salt. Let stand one hour, drain and wash, then drain again. Stir one tablespoonful of turmeric into a cupful of sugar; add to it one quart of vinegar and bring to a boil. Put in the cucumbers and onions and boil up once. Put away in jars well sealed.

Oil Pickles.

Take 100 cucumbers one-half to one inch in diameter, slice without peeling very thin, sprinkle one pint of salt over them and let stand over night with one-half dozen small onions sliced thin. Drain, but do not wash, mix with one-fourth pound each of white mustard seed, black mustard seed, four tablespoonfuls of celery seed and one-third of a pint of olive oil. Stir until well blended and add cold vinegar, good snappy vinegar, to cover. Put in glass jars and seal. Keep in a cool place. Those who like olive oil never tire of this kind of pickle.

Canning Tomatoes Whole.

Take a gallon of water, a cupful of salt and when boiling hot drop in whole firm, ripe tomatoes. Let cook until tender but not mushy, remove with a skimmer or perforated spoon to the jar and fill, packing them well. They make their own juice. Seal carefully and in the winter you may serve whole tomatoes as a vegetable or salad.

Crab Apple Jelly.

Wash and core sufficient apples to weigh four pounds, add two quarts of cold water, boil and cook for twenty minutes. To each pint of liquid add one-half pound of sugar. Put the juice in the kettle and the sugar in the oven to heat, boil the juice for ten minutes, add the sugar, cook three minutes and pour into the tumblers.

If either man or woman would realize the full power of personal beauty, it must be by cherishing noble thoughts and hopes and purposes; by having something to do and something to live for that is worthy of humanity, and which, by expanding the capacities of the soul, gives expansion and symmetry to the body which contains it.—Upham.

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS.

When one buys preserved pineapple the price is so high that one is glad to have a formula for making it at home.

Candied Pineapple.

Peel the fruit and cut it in strips two inches long and half an inch wide and one-quarter inch thick. Measure the fruit and add half the quantity of sugar and let stand until the sugar is dissolved which may be a day. Drain off the juice and boil it five minutes then add the fruit and cook five minutes or less. Spread the pineapple on a plate in the sun, turn and when dry roll in granulated sugar and pack in boxes with waxed paper between the layers. This is an especially delicious confection.

Peach Conserve.

Take five and one-half pounds of peaches, five pounds of sugar, two medium sized oranges, and one pound each of walnuts and seedless raisins. Peel the peaches and remove the stones and cut in small pieces. Put the raisins and oranges through the meat chopper and cut the nut meats into coarse pieces. Stir all together, add sugar and cook slowly until of the consistency of jam, stirring often to keep from scorching. This makes about eighteen glasses. Cover with paraffin when cool.

Indian Chutney.

Take two quarts each of tart apples and green tomatoes, two pounds of seedless raisins, three cupfuls each of brown sugar and vinegar, one small onion, two cupfuls of lemon juice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, one-half cupful of salt and a small jar of preserved ginger. Pare and core the apples and put them with the tomatoes and onions through the meat chopper, also the raisins. Mix all the ingredients in a stone jar and let stand over night. In the morning set the jar into a kettle of cold water, heat slowly and cook six hours, stirring often. Put into jars and seal.

Tongue Salad.

This is a salad nice for a luncheon dish. Take one-third each of boiled tongue finely minced, celery and potato, add minced parsley and serve with a highly seasoned dressing.

Artichoke Salad.

Take a quart of Jerusalem artichokes, scald with boiling water, scrape and then boil until tender. Season with salt, pepper and onion juice, celery or parsley, a tablespoonful of olive oil and a teaspoonful of vinegar. Line a salad bowl with lettuce, sprinkle with flaked smoked halibut, then with the artichokes; arrange carefully and mask with a spoonful or two of mayonnaise dressing.

Dates added to any fruit salad make a richer, more nutritious dish. A few raisins are also a good addition.

"If all the trees in all the wood could take on mortal form
And leave the place where they have stood through sunshine and through storm:
The mighty oak would be a knight in armor strong and rare;
The slender birch with dress so white would be a lady fair."

BANANA DISHES.

The wholesome banana lends itself to a variety of dishes, enhancing the flavor and adding to the nutritive value.

Banana and Prune Jelly.

Soak one-half pound of prunes in water over night; cook until tender in the same water. Drain, remove the stones and cut in pieces. Soak half a box of gelatin in one-half cupful of cold water; add enough boiling water to the hot prune liquid to make a pint; pour over the soaked gelatin and strain the whole over four bananas, cut in cubes. Heat to the scalding point, add three-quarters cupful of sugar, three-quarters cupful of lemon juice, pieces of prunes, a little grape juice; stir until the sugar is dissolved. Turn into a mold and set aside to become firm. When cold, turn from the mold and serve with whipped cream.

Escalloped Bananas.

Stir one-quarter of a cupful of butter into one pint of bread crumbs. Sprinkle the bottom of a pudding dish with the crumbs, cover with sliced bananas and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Repeat the layers until the crumbs are used. Add a little lemon juice or hot water, cover and bake 25 minutes, then remove the cover and brown. Serve as a dessert, with cream and sugar.

Fruit Punch.

Boil together four cupfuls of sugar and four cupfuls of water fifteen minutes. When cool, add the juice of four lemons and six oranges, the pulp of four bananas, a pint of strawberry juice and a cupful of fresh tea; let stand on ice until serving time, then add six quarts of ice water, a pint or two of apollinaris water. Add two bananas sliced in one-quarter-inch slices.

Compote of Bananas With Orange Sirup.

Prepare a thick rich sirup of orange juice, rind and sugar. Cool and pour over a pyramid of peeled bananas. Sprinkle with chopped pistachio nuts; chill and serve.

To him who in the love of nature holds
Communion with her visible forms she speaks

Their sharpness, ere he is aware.
—William Cullen Bryant.

EVERYDAY GOOD THINGS.

Save every bit of fat from bacon, suet or roasts and the household will not want for fats. The bacon fat, if the delicious smoked flavor is at all objectionable, may be washed by putting it into cold water and letting it come to the boiling point, then cool and all the sediment and most of the smoky flavor will be taken out in the water. Skim off the fat when it is cold.

Creole Loaf.

Take one and one-half pounds of chopped meat, pork and beef mixed, one and one-half onions chopped, one-half can of tomatoes, salt, pepper and one-half cupful of rolled oats. Mix well and bake and serve with a tomato sauce.

Potatoes au Gratin.

Boil the potatoes in their jackets, peel and chop rather coarsely. Put the potatoes into a baking dish, pour over them a white sauce and a sprinkling of grated cheese. Put into the oven, cover with buttered crumbs and bake until the crumbs are brown.

Never-Fail Cake.

Take one cupful of New Orleans molasses, one teaspoonful of soda, one tablespoonful of butter or lard, nutmeg, ginger, cinnamon or vanilla for flavoring, add one-half cupful of milk and a pinch of salt with flour to make a soft batter. Add the soda to a spoonful of warm water, then pour that into the molasses; stir until it foams. Bake in layer tins or loaf.

Mock Angel Food.

Sift several times one cupful of flour and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, add one cupful of boiling hot milk, stir smooth, fold in the whites of two eggs beaten stiff and bake in a loaf forty minutes.

Almond Cakes.

Take one-half cupful each of sugar and butter, one egg, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoonful of cloves, the same of grated nutmeg, one-half of a lemon rind, grated, two teaspoonfuls of orange juice and two cupfuls of flour. Mix and bake in a slow oven.

Beliefs Concerning Teeth.

There are curious fancies about teeth. To dream about teeth was held to be a warning that sorrow was at hand, and it was still more unlucky to dream of one's teeth falling out. Many people still throw an extracted tooth into the fire for luck, and this is observed specially in the case of young children to ensure that the remainder of their teeth will come properly. Teeth wide apart is said to be a sign of future prosperity and happiness.

NEW COATS FOR THE SMALL GIRL

THIS small person is much pleased with life in general and her new coat in particular, and she has no monopoly of pleasure in the new styles for children. For little girls the recently arrived coats are the most ingenious and the most pleasing that have come to pass in recent years. They ought to be, to appease us for our much-abused and depleted pocketbooks which they have helped to flatten; for children's coats are among the list of things that have increased most in price. But parents hearts are soft; a procession of new frocks and coats for girls will wheedle them out of more coin than it should and reconcile them to its loss.

Velours is as much a favorite for little people as for grownups. It appears on the little girl pictured here in a coat suited to a child anywhere from four to eight years old and shows how well it looks with border of wool angora. This fuzzy and childish-looking trimming makes the cuffs that finish off plain sleeves and the little choker collar with two make-believe ermine tails that bring it to a happy ending. There is further cause for satisfaction in a band of embroidery on the angora. The picture tells the simple story of this garment perfectly. It is merely a full skirt joined to a plain body that buttons at the left front and is extended at the back and front into a rounded tab below the waistline.

There are coats with big cape collars and big patch pockets quite out of proportion to the small garments they adorn but sure to delight young ladies from four to ten who are observant of grown up styles and know what they want. Velours, duvetyn and homespun are used for making them, or a tiny girl may be indulged in velvet. There are others with deep pointed yokes to which full skirts are gathered. Wide choker collars of fur and round fur buttons make one's joy complete in them. But about the best of all are coats having scarfs and cuffs of different materials. Such coats are straight garments "all buttoned up before," with narrow belts, deep cuffs and scarfs embroidered with bright colored wool across the ends

Hats Dispel September's Gloom

AS a panacea for the average broken heart a clever woman advises a new hat. In time of trouble when one must contemplate a long school year ahead, at the end of a blissful vacation, there is nothing more consoling than new millinery. It takes one's mind off the dullness of algebra and the trials of Latin.

Getting together an outfit is pleasantly exciting to the young person going away to school and under the supervision of a discriminating mother she will be provided with just enough clothes, simply designed, well and smartly made. Her millinery will include a very practical tailored hat and a simple dress or demi-dress affair. There is a good example of this sort of hat at the left of the group of school-girls' hats shown above. It is made of chenille braid, with soft, faille ribbon laid about the brim edge and is decorated with long stitches of embroidery silk. These are some very pretty velvet models, including shapes with turned back brims and Breton sailors for young women; the greatest favorites are the dashing artists' tam and the various off-the-face shapes.

There are tams of all sorts, for all kinds of wear and all ages of girls. Except for tassels or pompons there are almost no trimmings. On wide-brimmed velvet hats, for older girls, long, velvet ears contribute much sprightly style as a finishing touch.

For younger girls nothing is quite so elegant as the beaver and felts that are shown in a variety of simple shapes. All these hats have ribbon collars and long sash ends or tailored bows. A handsome specimen of beaver appears at the top of the group pictured, with collar and sash ends of faille ribbon. Below it at the right is a Breton sailor of felt and at the bottom of the group an off-the-face shape in felt having the upturned brim outlined with a strip of light felt.

To Make the Sweater Rose.

The sweater rose is crocheted from wool, and is bunched in corsages of several roses of different colors. It is easy to crochet a rose. Make a chain of eight, join it into a loop, fill this with about ten double crochets, and these doubles with five petals of four doubles each and a single between. This makes a flat rose, which is backed by a series of five chains of four chain stitches each, from the middle of each petal to the next, so that when they are filled with five doubles each they make a second row of alternate petals. To make the rose larger, keep on in this fashion, making your chains a little larger for each row of petals.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 12

THE GLORY OF SOLOMON'S REIGN.

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 10:1-13, 23-25.

GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord, that walketh in his ways.—Ps. 128:1.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—I Kings 9: 1-23; 10:14-29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Queen Visits a King.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Climax of Israel's Greatness.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Tests of National Greatness.

I. The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon (vv. 1, 2).

Her visit was the result of Solomon's widespread fame. That which made him famous was:

1. The extent of his kingdom (4:21-25). He ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates river to the Mediterranean sea, except the Phoenecians, but they were in alliance with him. This was the nearest to the realization of the divine promise, (Gen. 15:18), that Israel ever enjoyed; but the fulness of the promised possession shall be realized when the Greater than Solomon is king.

2. His great wisdom (4:29-34). It excelled that of the Chaldeans, Persians and Egyptians (vv. 30, 31). None of his contemporaries approached unto him in knowledge. He had a singularly comprehensive mind. He was (1) a moral philosopher—spake 3,000 proverbs; (2) a poet—his songs were a thousand and five; (3) a botanist—he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall; (4) a zoologist—he spake of beasts and fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes. He was superior in intellect to any of his own or any other age.

3. The temple (chs. 5 and 6). This was an exact reproduction of the tabernacle, double in size, in marble and gold. The amount of labor, skill and money expended on the building was exceedingly great (I Chron. 22:14-16). Never before had such a costly structure appeared.

4. Royal palaces adjoining the temple (ch. 7). Following the erection of the temple he began the building of his own house. He was nearly twice as long in building this as in building the Lord's house.

5. His commerce (9:26-28; cf. II Chron. 9:10, 21). His trading ships went east as far as the Indian ocean, perhaps even to India; and west as far as Spain.

6. Army and navy (10:26-29; cf. 9:27). Such wealth and greatness would at some time provoke opposition, so he put his nation into a state of preparedness.

All this greatness was associated with the name of the Lord. It was known that his fame was due to his relation with the living God. No one ever had a greater missionary opportunity than he. Wealth and knowledge may be powerful factors for the extension of the cause of Christ.

II. The Queen of Sheba Astonished (vv. 3-9).

After the interview in which Solomon answered all her questions, she was overwhelmed with his great wisdom. She had plied him with hard questions to see if he could measure up to his reputation, and found that the half had not been told her. His prosperity—houses, servants and their manner of life, and his manner of worship filled her with amazement. She attributed his wealth and prosperity to God, but as to whether she became a believer in the true God we cannot be sure.

III. The Queen of Sheba Gives Gifts to Solomon (vv. 10-13).

As was the custom, she brought gifts to Solomon, the king, the gold of which was in value between three and four millions of dollars.

This was a large gift for that time, but Solomon more than recompensed her. He gave her all she desired and in addition, of his royal bounty. While her gift to him was great, his to her was greater, even in keeping with his possessions. God gives unto them who give their hearts unto him exceeding abundantly above all they ask or think (Eph. 3:20.).

IV. All the Earth Sought Solomon (vv. 23-26).

His fame spread to all the earth so that the people came to hear the wisdom which God gave to him. They came with their gifts of silver, gold, garments, spices, horses and mules, so that silver came to be as common in Jerusalem as stone. There is a time coming when the Greater than Solomon shall be king over all the earth, and then all the people thereof shall come to him with their gifts, and he shall give unto them of his royal bounty. Happy, indeed, will all those be who recognize him and give their allegiance to him!

Solemn and Sacred Duty.

When in the world today we see the disastrous results which have followed the rule of those who count themselves "wise and strong" we should pray that we may become wise with the wisdom of God, and realize that there is laid upon us as representatives of his church a solemn and sacred duty to minister to a diseased and disorganized world the saving truth of his blessed gospel of peace that cometh only through righteousness and unselfishness.—Rt. Rev. F. F. Reese, D. D.

Time Should Be Employed.

Let all the intervals or void space of time be employed in prayers, reading, meditating, works of nature, recreation, charity, friendliness and neighborliness and means of spiritual and corporal health. Never walk with any man, or undertake any trifling employment, merely to pass the time away.—Jeremy Taylor.

WEALTH IN WEST

Canadian Farmers Confident of Record Grain Crop.

Boston Banker, Returning From Trip Through the Country, Tells of Rich Yields of Great Northwestern Wheat Fields.

A Boston banker, desiring to recuperate from a season of strenuous work, did what most bankers do, or should do, took a holiday, away from the confines of the city life. Canada was in his mind. He would make the trip, learn something of the country, breathe of its ozone and return exhilarated both in mind and body. On his return a few days ago, he told the reporter of the Wall Street Journal of the richness of the vast fields of golden grain that he saw on his trip through the Canadian West. Doubtless he broke his journey into the Canadian Rockies long enough to make an inspection of them. Who could help it, as from the car window were to be seen miles and miles of golden stooks, ranged row upon row away back to the lines of the horizon? He must have done so, for when he got back to the Hub, he was filled with enthusiasm over his trip and what he saw in Canada, and he had to get it off his mind. It was revealed in this way:

"Canada is getting strong, recovering by leaps and bounds from the depression caused by war. While unrest and lack of co-operation seem to be holding things back on this side of the border the Dominion to the north faces an era of unprecedented activity and prosperity. One of the basic reasons for this brilliant comeback is the rich yield of the great northwestern wheat fields."

That the crops in Canada, both east and west, are meeting the expectations of the farmers is a satisfying fact, which gives a positive assurance of a yield that will mean millions of dollars to the wealth of the country. There will probably be as much as two hundred million bushels of wheat to export, giving an added wealth to the country of nearly half a billion dollars. In all parts the crop yield promises to be abundant, and with favorable weather from now on there may be expected a harvest that will equal if not surpass that of 1915. It will doubtless be pleasing to the many readers of this paper to know that the friends they have developing their farms in this region of big crops and good prices will participate in this wealth, and what will be more pleasing, is the knowledge of the fact that the wealth in which they will participate comes from big prices for a product produced from land purchased at a cheap price.

Western Canada has never known a failure in crops. There are districts where partial failures have been, but consideration should be given to the fact that the country, that portion of it in which the present grain growing lies, is from seven to eight hundred miles in length by half that distance in breadth.

Because one speaks of the wonderful success of grain growing there, there should not be lost sight of the fact that this is only one item in the wealth-producing possibilities. There is cattle raising, with all the advantages in every way that it possesses anywhere; the dairying industry is assuming remarkable proportions, and a great deal of attention is given to the development of this industry, which is so adaptable to the country, by both federal and provincial governments.—Advertisement.

"STRANGE HOW WOMEN SUFFER"

Says Tennessee Lady, and Will Just Go Suffering, She Says, When Cardui Is Right at Hand.

Caryville, Tenn.—Hoping her experience may benefit others who suffer from disorders common among women, Mrs. Charles Rains, of this (Campbell) county, says: "I had womanly troubles till I couldn't rest, couldn't sleep, and was nervous and suffered a great deal of pain in my head, limbs and back. I would get to the place where I couldn't move without a great effort.

"For years I had known of Cardui, and it is strange how a woman will just go on suffering when the best remedy in the world is right at hand—but we do!

"But finally the pain was worse, my suffering so great, I knew I must do something. A friend mentioned Cardui and we sent for it. One bottle helped me.

"I took a course of Cardui, regained my strength, built myself up and felt like a new woman.

"Can I recommend Cardui? Yes, and gladly, for it is a God-send to suffering women. I hope when they suffer with troubles common to women they don't wait, but get this sure remedy at once."

MERELY MAKING IT WORSE

Tommy Was Naturally Fearful as to the Consequences of Any More Interruptions.

A very junior officer was trying his first case.

"Seven days confinement to camp," he snapped.

"Beg pardon, sir," whispered the company sergeant-major. "You mustn't give a sentence like that. You—"

"All right, then, fourteen days," retorted the sub.

"But, sir," pleaded the sergeant-major, "it's not—"

"'Arf a mo', major." interposed the Tommy. "Don't check 'im again or 'e'll give me twenty-one. 'E ain't a horficer—e's a hauctioneer!"—London Tit-Bits.

Too Early.

Friend wife was coming in on the 4 a. m. train and, of course, my alarm clock failed to register. It was exactly four when I woke up and, dashing out to the garage, started the engine. Still half asleep, I threw the clutch into reverse instead of first speed and whirled through the back door and part of my neighbor's yard, bringing up with a bang almost in the middle of the sleeping tent where my neighbor's family spent their nights. My wife certainly found a warm reception when she reached home. The whole neigborhood was out to welcome her following the riot.—Chicago Tribune.

The receiver may be as bad as the thief, but the loser feels worse than either of them.

The Social Instinct.

"You don't seem to take the same interest in your work that you did at first," remarked Farmer Corntossel.

"I take as much interest as ever," replied the hired man. "But what's the use of my tryin' to do so much work that I'll get unpopular with the rest of the help?"

HAD GOT HIS ROUTES MIXED

Negro Soldier's Amusing Explanation as to How It Was He Got His Wound.

A medical corps officer chanced upon a negro acquaintance of civil life one day in France.

"How do you like the army, Mose?" he asked.

"'S'all right so far, cap'n," replied the negro, "but Ah don' know how I'm going to like it when dem Germans shoots at me."

"Don't worry about that," replied the officer. "All you have to do is zigzag." And he demonstrated.

The next time the two met, the negro was in a hospital.

"What's the matter with you, Mose?" asked the officer.

"I ain't sure, cap'n, but Ah think I must have been ziggin' 'bout de time Ah oughta been zaggin'."—American Legion Weekly.

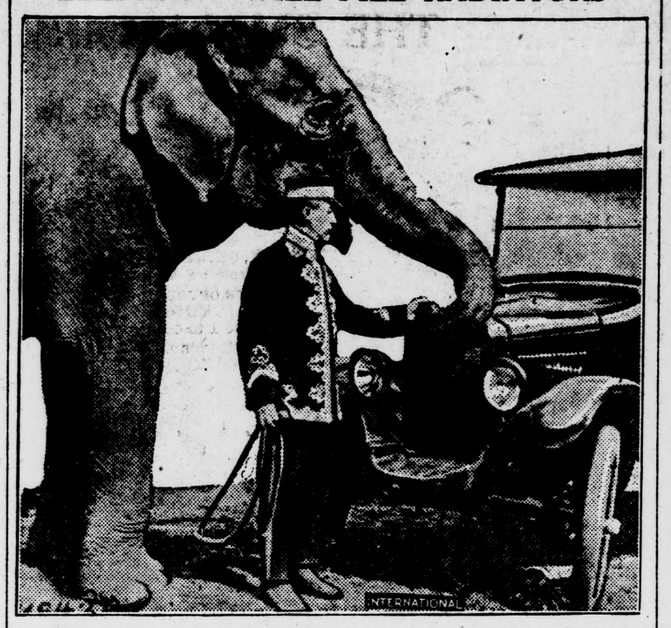
The Financial Cootie.

The unsettlement of foreign exchange has bred a considerable contempt for foreign currency in the minds of certain Americans. The American father of one Yank who had stayed in France to "clean things up" had established a generous line of credit for him. Friend Son began to hit things up rather hard, and in consequence the father received a cablegram reading: "Your son's account already overdrawn 100,000."

To which he cabled back to the bankers:

"If you mean dollars, send him home; if you mean pounds tell him to be careful; if you mean those funny little things let him have all he wants."—American Legion Weekly.

ELEPHANT WILL FILL RADIATORS



If you own an automobile you should also own an elephant. Henry Beshane, head elephant trainer of a large circus, now on a tour of the country, says "Old Buck" one of his herd, is the greatest garage assistant ever. Beshane has taught "Old Buck" to fill the radiators of the circus autos with water when necessary. "Old Buck" carries the water from a tank to the auto in his trunk. Why haul pails of water when an elephant will do the work for you?

PROVIDE ENGINE WITH LUBRICANT

Liquid in Crank Base Sometimes Thinned Out With Gasoline and Disaster Follows.

MAKE CERTAIN OF RIGHT OIL

Old Material Should Be Drawn Out and New Supply Put in for Every 1,000 Miles of Driving—Keep Close Watch on Gauge.

The wise car owner obeys his instruction book explicitly. He fills the base of his engine with lubricant when oil is necessary, as indicated by the gauge, but the instruction book does not always advise him further regarding the oiling system. At the present high cost of lubricant more instructions are necessary.

You may have liquid in the base of your engine, but is it a lubricant? Many times this liquid is a combination of cylinder oil and gasoline. Its lubricating properties are poor and should the bearings burn out through lack of oil the owner is apt to blame the oil for the trouble. Then he immediately buys oil of another grade, without knowing the real reason for his trouble.

Make Sure of Right Oil.

The best way to make sure of having the right grade of oil is to use religiously the oil recommended by the manufacturers of the particular car you drive. Depending upon the type of engine, crank-case oil should be changed regularly. Old lubricating oil should be drawn out and new oil put in for at least every 1,000 miles of driving. In special cases it is advisable to renew the oil much offener, but this is the usual length of time it may be left in the engine.

If the engine doesn't get a sufficient amount of oil it will run hot. If the driver does not notice that his oil gauge is failing to indicate, it is doubtful that he would know the engine was hot until it stopped and wouldn't run any more. In such a case he would probably find that one or two, perhaps all, of the bearings are burnt out.

Something Wrong.

When the engine is not getting enough oil it is usually because the oil supply has been allowed to run low or there is something wrong with the circulating system—either the pump is not forcing the oil to the bearings properly or the pipes are plugged or the connections are loose or the strainer is obstructed with foreign matter.

Whenever the gauge does not function properly the trouble should be investigated at once. Make sure, first of all, that there is enough oil in the crank case. Then take a careful look at the oil pipe connections to make sure that they are not leaking. If these are tight take out the oil strainer and clean it and if the trouble is still in evidence disconnect all the oil pipes and stick wires through them or blow them out with the tire pump. Finally, a better adjustment of the oil pump may be made to cause it to pump more oil, provided indications prove it to be improperly adjusted.

STEEL TO REMOVE BUSHINGS

Tool Should Be Bent Slightly Near End and Long Enough to Pass Through Knuckle.

A tool for removing steering spindle bushings may be made from a piece of ¾-inch round steel, which should be bent slightly about two inches from the end. The tool will have to be long enough to pass through the steering knuckle and leave an inch or two sticking out, on which to hammer.

Cause of Muffler Explosions.

Explosions in the muffler are caused by the presence of a fuel charge not ignited during the previous stroke of the engine.

Test Wheels Monthly.

Once every month the wheels of the car should be jacked up and tested for smoothness of running and for side play.

Good Lubrication Helps.

The most essential thing to low depreciation is good lubrication.

REMOVE CARBON WITH COMMON WIRE BRUSH

Ordinary Scraper Is More or Less Unsatisfactory.

Special Device for Purpose Consists of Some Stranded-Wire Cable and Brass Tubing—Illustration Explains Fully.

The ordinary carbon scraper is a more or less unsatisfactory tool, especially where the only access to the piston and cylinders is through the spark-plug hole. A special tool for the purpose consists of some stranded-wire cable and a piece of brass tubing. One end of the tube is bent slightly, as indicated in the sketch, the wire cable is placed through the pipe, and the end frayed or untwisted. The opposite end of the cable is taped and wound with twine to afford a convenient handle.

The tool is used as illustrated; gripping the pipe with the left hand, the right hand is used to move the cable back and forth in pump fashion. The projecting prongs scour the piston head and cylinder walls.

After the carbon is pulverized, the motor is run for a few minutes with the spark plug left out, when the suction and compression of the piston blows most of the loose carbon out of the exhaust port and the plug opening. A piece of steel wire cable should be used in making this tool; soft-iron wire is not stiff enough to be effective. —Popular Mechanics Magazine.

AUTOMOBILE GOSSIP

Don't fail to keep an eye on your ammeter.

* * *

See that the oil gauge always works and that there are no oil leaks about the engine.

* * *

Attend to lubrication regularly, so the moving parts will not be dry, even for a moment.

* * *

It is remarkable what vibration will do in the way of loosening up grease cups that have gone in stiffly and apparently been absolutely secure.

* * *

After a casing has been long in use stretching sometimes results, so that it takes longer to inflate it. A stretched tire should not be pumped too tight.

* * *

The engine should never be run when the storage battery is out of the car or disconnected unless the generator has first been rendered inoperative.

* * *

Drain your engine oil every 500 to 1,000 miles. It may seem cheaper to use the old oil now that oil is higher in cost, but repairs are more costly than oil.

* * *

The starter should not be abused. If the engine does not start on the first few turns, stop and look for trouble.

* * *

Adjusting a cold motor seldom proves satisfactory afterward. Lasting adjustments must be made under the conditions of normal operation, which they aim to improve.

* * *

Whenever the car has suffered a bump of any kind, a crash against the curb of anything of the sort. The wheels should immediately be tested for alignment.

* * *

It is very important that all bearings and working surfaces be regularly inspected, cleaned and lubricated.

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

HAD USE FOR HIS MILLION

Zeb Would at Least Employ It to Good Advantage, as Far as It Would Go.

A party of baymen gathered round the stove in a little oyster shack on the Great South bay started the old, old question as to what they would do if they suddenly came into possession of $1,000,000. Some bought great ocean-going yachts; others endowed schools, and one even offered to contribute his to help out the government.

The question finally came round to old Zeb Banks, noted as the ne'er-do-well of the fishing neighborhood.

"And now, Zeb, you've been keeping pretty quiet," one of them said. "Just what'd you do if you had a million dollars?"

"Well, I don't know 'zactly," responded Zeb reflectively as he spat at the stove. "I reckon I'd pay it on my debts, 's far as it went."—Saturday Evening Post.

Uniform Berries.

"What nice large strawberries!" said the lady in the market.

"Yes, ma'am; aren't they beauties?" replied the man with the near-white apron.

"How do you sell them?"

"Fifty cents a quart, ma'am."

"And are they just the same at the bottom of the basket as on the top?"

"Oh, yes, ma'am; fifty cents a quart, just the same."

TO MEET THE EMERGENCY

Youngster Had Little Difficulty Making Up His Mind as to What He Would Do.

As the old lady strolled on the cliffs near a seaside town she came across a lad dressed in the well-known scouts' rig.

"What do they teach you in the Scouts?" she asked him, with a beaming smile.

"To be manly citizens, and true to king and country," replied the lad promptly.

"And what are you going to be when you grow up, my little man?" went on his self-appointed examiner.

"A soldier, to fight for the king," was the patriotic reply.

"Very brave," applauded the old dame. "Now, suppose you saw the king's coach dashing along, with runaway horses, straight toward the edge of this cliff, what would you do?"

The youngster eyed her in disgust. Evidently she was one of those people who never imagine a boy has any sense. He determined to settle her once and for all, so he replied:

"I'd shut my eyes, and sing, 'God Save the King.'"—London Answers.

Getting His Bearings.

One day as I was driving along I heard a crack in the vicinity of the rear wheel. Upon investigation I discovered all the bearings gone.

Not being able to continue, I sat down on the running board waiting for help. Before long a seedy-looking man came along in a car making so much noise that he had difficulty in hearing me.

I called out: "Hey, mister, do you know any place near here where I can get some bearings?"

The man looked around quickly, gave me a sly wink and said: "Sure, if you know enough to keep your mouth shut."—Exchange.

Should Know About Market

Something like one fourth of the farmers' produce goes to foreign countries. This fact makes it necessary for farmers to know foreign as well as domestic markets, says, Secretary of Agriculture, E. T. Meredith. The export business of agricultural products in 1919 was about 55% of all exports, representing about 4½ billion dollars. The farmer through his market organizations should be interested in foreign trade of all agricultural products. This information the Bureau of Markets is now able to supply through its foreign marketing service which is now being established in Great Britian and in South America.

The falling off in use of condensed milk by Europe, which has closed numerous condenseries is an example of what may result from cutting off trade in the foreign fields.

HONORS WENT TO RABBI WISE

Jewish Scholar's Story Considerably Bettered That Related by His Christian Fellow Guest.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, head of the New York Free synagogue, rose to an emergency the other night with a fine example of the quiet humor which was characteristic of his father, the founder of the Hebrew Union college of Cincinnati. It was at a dinner at the residence of J. P. Morgan. The guests included men of prominence in various fields of public endeavor. The affair was quite informal, and the addresses were appropriate to this easy atmosphere.

References to the influence of the Jew in New York life had elicited varied comment, when one of the guests told a story. "I dreamed I died," said he, "and went across the Styx. St. Peter met me on the river bank and asked me if I would prefer the Christian heaven or the Hebrew heaven. I told him I'd look them both over and decide. He asked me which I would see first. I said I'd see the Hebrew heaven first, so he led me to it. Everybody was talking business. I told St. Peter I'd have to ask him to take me to the Christian heaven. 'This one is just like New York,' I said."

When this story had received its due meed of mild laughter, Rabbi Wood rose to speak. "It is something of a coincidence, no doubt," said he, "that I should have had a dream very similar to the one that has just been described, but, nevertheless, you may be interested to hear about it. I dreamed I died and went to the land of the hereafter. St. Peter met me, just as he did the previous speaker, with a request to know whether I would prefer the Hebrew heaven or the Christian heaven. I asked if I might see both of them before I decided.

"'Of course,' he replied, 'which will you see first?'

"I told him that I had come a great deal into contact with Christians during my career on earth and that I would like to see the Christian heaven first. He took me there, but I only remained a moment. There wasn't any one there."—New York Correspondence in Cincinnati Times-Star.

Keep Well And be Happy

If you would be happy you must keep your bowels regular. One or two of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will cause a gentle movement of the bowels on the following morning. Try it.

The Eastern States Land Co.

MR. TENANT FARMER:

You dread to go in debt for a farm yet if you and I could sit down and figure it out I believe that I could show you where you are in debt for a farm to-day which you will never own.

Why not pay for your farm as you go along so that in later years you and your family can enjoy the leisure and satisfaction, so well earned, that comes from owning your farm. Here is a description of two properties that are the right size for a man and his family and it is my honest opinion that both will increase in value in the next five years.

The first is a 158 acre farm near Glasgow, and adjoining the State Road. It has 115 acres of tillable land, the balance in woods and permanent pasture with a young fruit orchard of 360 trees. The barn is 40x50 with a 25x16 offset, the granary, wagon shed, chicken house and other outbuildings are in good repair. The house is large and comfortable. The farm is well fenced with barbed wire, watered with a running stream and will carry thirty head of stock. It is one and one-half miles from Railroad and milk station, there is a school across the road from the farm, and the present owner will seed 45 acres of wheat this fall which is included in the price. $10,000 on favorable terms and immediate possession given.

The second is a 74 acre farm six miles from Wilmington on the Lincoln Highway and only three-fourths of a mile from churches, school, and electric line. The land is a good loam, slightly rolling, well drained and has a stream running down one side of the farm. The buildings are in good shape with the exception of the granary which needs some repairs. Price $10,000 and immediate possession given.

Banks Furnish Cheap Money

Your Bank protects you against fire and theft; helps you in emergencies with needed funds at six per cent, thus saving you from the clutches of the pawnshop (lawfully charging 12 percent, unlawfully 24 plus) or from the noteshaver.

If everybody joined the $3,000,000,000 hoarders many Banks would close. Then one of those two usurers would skin business borrowers.
